

POLITICAL TARDEADA

IN SUPPORT OF LA RAZA STUDIES IN TUCSON, ARIZONA

APRIL 2 6:30-9:00PM

POLITICAL TARDEADA SAVE ETHNIC STUDIES

Arizona law HB2281 bans ethnic studies.
Parents, teachers and students in Tucson are challenging that law in court. They need our generous support.

Join members of the Los Angeles Committee to Support Ethnic Studies (LACSES), the National Association for Chicana Chicano Studies (NACCS) and Latino Heritage Pasadena (LHP) for an informal reception to raise money to support the legal battle to save ethnic studies.

Saturday, April 2, 2011 6:30 to 9:00 p.m.

Grand Ballroom of Westin Pasadena Hotel
191 North Los Robles Pasadena, CA 91101

Featured guests and speakers include:

Rudy Acuña, Sean Arce, Dra. Mary Pardo, Harry Gamboa Jr, Barbara Carrasco, Lalo Alcaraz, Wendy Carrillo (Power 106), Raul Campos (KCRW), Richard Montoya, Felicia Montes, Gustavo Arrellano, music by Las Cafeteras and many more artists, activists and academics.

General Admission
