UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

CURTIS ACOSTA, et al.,)	No. 10-cv-623-AWT
Plaintiffs,)	ORDER RE PRELIMINARY
vs.)	INJUNCTION BRIEFING &
)	HEARING SCHEDULE
JOHN HUPPENTHAL, et al.,) Defendants.)

On November 15, 2011, Plaintiffs filed and served their motion for a preliminary injunction (the “Motion”). The court deferred their motion for expedited consideration of the Motion. On November 16, Defendants moved for an extension of time to respond to the Motion. Because Plaintiffs are entitled to consideration of their motion on a timely basis, and because this court cannot control the timing of when the Superintendent’s decision concerning the Tucson Unified School District will become final, the court concludes that it must set a hearing on the Motion without undue delay. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Defendants’ opposition to the Motion shall be filed and served not later than December 7, 2011.
2. Any reply by Plaintiffs shall be filed and served by December 14.
3. The Motion shall be heard on December 21, at 2:00 p.m., at
